Inspired Events This Summer at Serendipity

The News:

NARAMATA, BC: Serendipity Winery (990 Debeck Road, Naramata, British Columbia) is getting set for their annual series of exciting events at the winery this summer, serving as inspiration for travel to the Okanagan Valley.

Their annual Naughty & Nice Party (Saturday, August 1, 10:00 am to 5:00 pm) features complimentary wine tastings paired with unique culinary creations from winery owner Judy Kingston. Admission is free and all are welcome.

On Saturday, August 15, their successful Movie Night Under the Stars series returns with a sunset showing of 'Good Will Hunting'. The $25 admission fee includes a glass of Serendipity wine and a generous slice of gourmet pizza. Bring your own blanket.

The Serendipity wine shop is open daily through the summer from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm until the Okanagan Fall Wine Festival.

For more information on these and other exciting events, please email wineclub@serendipitywinery.com.

About Serendipity Winery:

Serendipity Winery, owned by Judy Kingston, along with second-in-command Katie O'Kell, is located in the Okanagan Valley, BC, in the heart of the Naramata Bench. In 2005, Kingston had a serendipitous moment when driving past an old orchard, and the result is now her award-winning vineyard and winery. From ten acres of vines, winemaker Bradley Cooper crafts a selection of wines, including Sauvignon Blanc, Viognier, Cabernet Franc, Syrah, Merlot, Pinot Noir, and a Rosé, as well as blends Devil's Advocate, Red Handed, Serenata, and White Lie. The wine lineup continually gathers accolades, and in 2013 the winery was named BC Winery of the Year at the New York International Wine Competition.
